This Land Is My Land

Esther York Burkholder

America is my country! All fifty states of it! Its snowcapped mountains and its green hills are mine. Its fertile plains and valleys, its sunny deserts, its blue lakes and rivers, its deep forests and woodlands, all belong to me. Mine, too, are its shores and beaches washed by the waters of the world. Its teeming cities are mine, along with its towns and tiny villages. I own its great highways and bridges, its little rambling roads.

Its government and institutions are mine. So are its schools and universities, its hospitals, libraries, museums, its wealth of art and antiquity.

I am heir to a brave and godly heritage. Am I not rich? With so much, I have responsibility. I must care for my country, to keep it strong and beautiful without and within. I must live up to the best that I know. I must work hard and dream big, and keep the torch of freedom burning.

This land is my land! I am an American!

Notes by Louis Untermyer

1917 was the year 1917 fell upon the people, shattering their high tower of hope. It had begun in 1914, and for a moment that America could stay out. The war was "over there."
1917 and boats were sunk. England and her fleet for help. National conscience and of deeds instead of words, to arm the country continued unrestricted warfare at sea. America armed its merchant ships. It was ready for any emergency. When diplomatic relations were severed. A month later war was declared.
and of embolism began. Like its industry had to have an assembly line. of converting industry to war production. to Bernard Baruch. Herbert Hoover was appointed Commissioner of Food Administration; he urged home economy while he forged for food in American bins to feed an emaciated Europe.

While the factories were readied, an army was built up. Conscription was begun under the democratically graceful name of "selective service." The people, however, used the short word "draft;" it seemed to fit the angry tempo. It had a rapid-fire quickness about it. Major Hugh A. Johnson and Secretary of War Newton D. Baker engineered the details of the draft. The army trained without adequate supplies, but conversion of industry was rapid. Textile mills made gas masks; plow manufacturers and typewriter factories reduced production of their models and turned out guns, shells, tanks. Dollar-a-year men went up and down to Washington bringing their industrial know-how into the government. By summer, General Pershing set up staff headquarters in Paris. A contingent of American troops arrived to bolster the exhausted Allies, but throughout 1917 American supplies were few.

Big war needs big money. People bought Liberty Bonds. The Income Tax Laws underwent major changes. Congress, as usual, attacked the methods of the Administration.

America was frightened by the national speed of living. It began a critical examination of itself and attempted to legislate morals as a brake to the runaway habits of its leisure. It created Prohibition, a law to amend the custom of drinking. It passed the "blue laws," making Sunday as sterilized a day as the years had been under Puritan Cromwell.

The robust figure of woman stirred. Out of the kitchen and the church auxiliary she came to take the job a man had left. Politically she was a slave: voteless and voiceless. Frustrated and humiliated, she burst from her bondage. The suffragettes fought through, state by state, until they won an amendment to the Constitution giving them the right to vote. . . . President Wilson appointed a woman on the Compensation Commission. "Ma" Ferguson succeeded her husband as Governor of Texas. She was the nation's first woman governor.

The British, advancing from Egypt, captured Jerusalem, for over 600 years in undisputed possession of the Turks. This was largely achieved by building a water pipe-line across the Sinai Desert — an American engineering feat.

The glamorous spy, Mata Hari, was executed by a firing squad in France. During the course of her trial, it was learned that the most guarded secret of the war, the tank, was procured by her for the Germans. They were ready with an anti-tank gun designed by the Krupp Factories. A munitions ship blew up in Halifax harbor devastating two square miles of the city. The next day there was a blizzard which completed the tragedy and left four thousand dead.

The monk Rasputin, power behind the Czarist throne, was assassinated. The Czar, his family, and many aristocrats, were executed. Imperial Russia was in revolution. A strange body of men arose. They were the Bolsheviks, led by Lenin, Stalin, Zinoviev, and Trotsky. The Russian troops were weary of war; they were reported making peace overtures to the Central Powers. In December, 1917, negotiated peace talk filtered out of Germany.

Baseball was reorganized and emerged with a great hero, Christy Mathewson, and a new set of rules. The spitball was eliminated. Babe Ruth was a promising young player in the Boston lineup. In football circles a new technique, the forward pass, was favored.

The theatre was busy. Maudie Adams appeared in James Barrie's A Kiss for Cinderella. Ben Hur was popular in New York; its playbills advertised "350 living persons and 20 living horses." David Warfield plucked the heart-strings with The Music Master. The aging but tireless French actress, Sarah Bernhardt, toured the country. Eddie Cantor became a hit in the Ziegfeld Follies.

A new kind of music burst into the entertainment field, a singable, danceable, rousing arrangement of simple melodies. Jazz became the folk-music of America. Ted Lewis began to be known for his eccentric style of playing the clarinet with Earl Fuller's Band at Coney Island. Vincent Lopez assembled his first band about the same time. Isham Jones was becoming known throughout the middle west. Nineteen seventeen ushered in the name band which was to dominate the field of popular music in the 1920's.

Motion pictures emerged from their swaddling clothes. Les Miserables, starring William Farnum, was advertised as "the most intense, compelling, powerful production in the recent history of the movies." The opera singer, Mary Garden, starred in Thais.

Many 1917 books and authors are still remembered. Edna Ferber's Fanny Herself; Galsworthy's Beyond; H. G. Wells' The Soul of a Bishop; Edith Wharton's Summer. The Three Black Pennys by Joseph Hergesheimer became famous. Wide discussion was heard everywhere about the new movements in poetry, especially concerning such poets as Robert Frost, Carl Sandburg, Amy Lowell, and Edgar Lee Masters.

1917 shattered America's isolation from events and from ignorance of its own great power. The national character took on international meaning.

The SONGS OF OUR TIMES Long Play records include the hit tunes of each year, 1917 through 1943 — each year on a separate Decca Long Play record. Be sure to ask for your favorite year.

The World Needs Easter

Helen Crawford

The world must know that there is God,
Who marked the way that we should trod,
By sending Christ to us, His Son . . .
The Truth, the Way, the Only One.

Thus God prepared for us the way,
When Jesus all our debts did pay . . .
For our forgiveness met the price,
Of death through utter sacrifice.

And God, through His own promised Word,
Giving hope in hearts has stirred,
For Christ arose! No death, no strife . . .
Just faith in Him—Eternal Life!

I looked and saw the lilacs fling
 their perfume to the breeze;
 I caught the balmy fragrance from the pear and apple trees.
 I marked the stately tulip and the iris, tall and sweet,
 Looking down upon the violet nestling shyly at her feet.

The grass was green and fragrant,
 the sky deep blue and clear . . .
 And with a rush of gratitude my heart cried, "Spring is here!"
 I heard the robin chirping, on his early morning round,
 I heard the dove's low cooing and the junco's twittering sound.

I saw the sunset colors, gleaming
 red and gold and pink,
 Etched above the mountain as a painter splashes ink.
 I saw a lazy streamlet gurgling soft
 and blue and clear;
 I held my breath and whispered,
 "Spring and beauty both are here."

I heard a church bell ringing, saw the people in a throng
 Go to join the service, moved by anthem and by song.
 I felt that in the garden, in the meadow and the sky,
 By riverside and church there was a radiant glory nigh.

The spirit of the springtime spoke through blossom, tree, and sod,
 And everywhere I looked I saw the workmanship of God.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK—

HOLIDAY RECIPE.

Mrs. Karl Rosenoff of Ritzville is serving her husband a favorite family recipe for the holiday season—Brazil nut date cake. Mrs. Rosenoff has made the cake at Yuletide for the last 10 years, as have many of her friends whom she has given the recipe. The cake is easy to make and is so versatile that several other ingredients can be added without changing the texture of the cake.

Brazil Nut Date Cake

When the Christmas holiday season approaches, fruit cake comes to the minds of many homeowners as they are preparing for the gay times when guests will be dropping in.

Mrs. Karl (Maude) Rosenoff of Ritzville has made a Brazil nut date cake every Yuletide season for the last 10 years and she thought that other area homemakers might like the recipe already being used by many of her friends.

The cake has a flavor very similar to fruit cake and is versatile enough to be prepared using a variety of ingredients. And it is easy to make.

ALTHOUGH the recipe calls for two cups of Brazil nuts, Mrs. Rosenoff has found that the cake also is tasty when walnuts are substituted. A cup of white raisins and a cup of mixed candy fruit can be added to the other ingredients listed without changing any other amounts.

Mrs. Rosenoff explained that none of the fruit should be cut up, but left in big pieces.

She has found best results by mixing the ingredients by hand until all of the fruit and nuts are covered with flour. Then the foamy egg mixture can be poured over the floured ingredients and again mixed by hand.

The old recipe recommended using a 9¼x5½x2¼ inch pan, but Mrs. Rosenoff said the size of pan used does not make any difference. A loaf pan, angel food cake pan or cake or pie tin are adequate.

The recipe, which she clipped from a national magazine, can be prepared days or weeks ahead and will stay fresh by either freezing or keeping tightly sealed in waxed paper or a bread box.

ABOUT THE only other desserts Mrs. Rosenoff likes to serve with the cake are ice cream or sherbert because it is so heavy.

The Rosenoffs have one son, Charles, who is working for the soil conservation service in Pasco. He and his wife, Charlene, have two sons, Bruce, 13. Doug-

Mrs. Rosenoff's hobbies are knitting, reading and memorizing poetry. She and her husband like to travel and list several lengthy trips taken in recent years.

She is a past noble grand of the Rebekah lodge and is a member of the American Legion auxiliary and the Woman's club. She also is a life-long member of Trinity Methodist church.

The White Ribbon.

I seek it, the white, white ribbon,
In parlor and street and cars;
I watch for its flashing message
As those who watch for the stars;
For tho' it be frayed and dingy,
And worn on a shabby dress,
It lends to its faithful wearer
A charm you may never guess.

So wear it with pride dear women,
Morning and noon and night;
Glad to show wherever you go
You're standing for God and right.
It breathes of hope to the hopeless,
It breathes of a purpose high
For God and home and country
To live, to do, to die.

Its purity is a promise
Of the time we long to see,
When stainless as its beauty
Our starry flag shall be;
So let it flash out dear women,
Its vision has power to smite
Our evil foe such a telling blow,
As will help to win the fight.

To all who have bravely taken
The vows of our world wide band,
To carry love's blessed gospel
To sisters in every land,
This little knot of ribbon,
Sweet sign of an inward grace,
Means all that God and women
Can do for the human race.

Then let it shine out, dear women
Our beautiful ribbon white,
For you cannot know, as you come and go
What soul may need its light.

JESSE R. HARRIS

Jesse R. Harris came to Washington in 1917, having previously spent many years in South Dakota. In that state he was for six years foreman of a stock ranch, so it may be inferred that the new candidate for sheriff has had some experience in handling rough character. It is said in the cattle states that a man who can handle a bunch of cow punchers satisfactorily can take hold of any tough proposition that is going. Mr. Harris, during his twenty years' residence in Adams county has always been a staunch Republican, and the party in placing him on the ticket, has acknowledged his claims to recognition and added to the ticket a strong candidate. David Warfield plucked the heart-strings with The Music Master. The aging but tireless French actress, Sarah Bernhardt, toured the country. Eddie Cantor became a hit in the Ziegfeld Follies.

A new kind of music burst into the entertainment field: a singable, danceable, rousing arrangement of simple melodies. Jazz became the folk-music of America. Ted Lewis began to be known for his eccentric style of playing the clarinet with Earl Fuller's Band at Coney Island. Vincent Lopez assembled his first band about the same time. Isham Jones was becoming known throughout the middle west. Nineteen seventeen ushered in the name band which was to dominate the field of popular music in the 1920's.

Motion pictures emerged from their swaddling clothes. Les Misérables, starring William Farnum, was advertised as "the most intense, compelling, powerful production in the recent history of the movies." The opera singer, Mary Garden, starred in Thais.

Many 1917 books and authors are still remembered. Edna Ferber's Fanny Herself; Galsworthy's Beyond; H. C. Wells' The Soul of a Bishop; Edith Wharton's Summer; The Three Black Pennys by Joseph Hergenhofner became famous. Wide discussion was heard everywhere about the new movements in poetry, especially concerning such poets as Robert Frost, Carl Sandburg, Amy Lowell, and Edgar Lee Masters.

1917 shattered America's isolation from events and from ignorance of its own great power. The national character took on international meaning.

Family Honors Con Heins After Golden Wedding

Children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Con Hein of Harrington honored them at a dinner March 18 at the Circle T Inn here.

The couple marked their golden wedding anniversary on February 25.

Coming from Kalispell, Mont., were their oldest daughter, Mrs. Florence Norby and sons Ray and Rand. Coming from Seattle were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Wheeler and daughters Doreen and Kay. A third daughter, Mrs. Harold Manke of Harrington, attended with her husband and their sons Howard and Tom.

Mrs. Wheeler and Mrs. Manke are twin sisters.

The Heins' fourth child, Virgil, came from Mohler, his home with his family, Mrs. Hein and their children Melaine and Stephanie, 14-year-old twins, and Wendy and Joel.

Also present were Mrs. Anna Manke, mother of Mrs. Harold Manke.

Howard Manke, a senior at Eastern Washington State college acted as master of ceremonies. He interviewed each guest in turn. The honored couple were presented with an orchid corsage and a boutonniere, as well as a money gift from their children.

Mr. and Mrs. Hein were married in 1917 in Packard. They lived all their married life in this area, the past 19 years in Harrington. They are members of Emanuel Lutheran church here.

The Virgil Heins were host and hostess at a February 25 celebration honoring the Heins. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Rueben Derr and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thiel of Ritzville. The women are sisters of Mrs. Hein.

Also present on that occasion were two brothers of Mrs. Hein, with their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Becker of Harrington and Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Becker of Odessa.

Due to illness, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Becker were unable to attend. Their daughter, Susan and Mrs. Fred Weise, Cindy and Julie, were guests. Susan Becker and Mrs. Meise are nieces of Mrs. Hein. The Harold Mankes were co-hosts of this dinner with the Virgil Heins.

The only other Hein in R.H.S. is Florence Sen's daughter, class 1935. You're heard that as long as you were the ONLY girl in the world you'd probably be my sister. Well, she could have been Con's sister.

Conrad Hein Laid to Rest Here Friday

Conrad was married February 25, 1917 in Ritzville to Katherine Becker. Printer's Devil of 1917 Returns to Journal-Times

Harley Hollenshead of Bremerton did quite a bit of death-ising here over the weekend.

He was one of the class of 1917 graduates of Ritzville High school who held a reunion here and attended the annual alumni banquet.

Harley called at the Journal-Times and asked to see the back shop. In his senior year, Harley said, he worked as a "printer's devil" at The Journal-Times. This meant that he did the casting, sweeping and distribution of handset type back to their cases from the newspaper pages.

Harley recalled that his duties included also the building of fires in stoves in the shop and the office. One morning about 5 a tremendous explosion took place in the shop. No severe damage occurred, Harley recalled, except that he had a lot of extra work cleaning the soot out of everything.

Charles Sprague was the Journal-Times publisher at the time Hollenshead was employed here.

The last day Hollenshead worked at the newspaper was the day he caught his finger, down to the first knuckle, in a job press. He spoke Saturday of the incident being a matter of carelessness on his own part. The accident resulted in a stiff bent finger joint for Harley.

Memorial Service for Pioneer Lady Planned Dec. 15-18

Mrs. Lena L. Hollenshead, 87, of Seattle, a former resident of the Ritzville area for 37 years, died December 3 in Seattle hospital.

She was born in Germany in 1881 and moved to Ritzville in 1887. She later moved to Seattle in 1925.

Mrs. Hollenshead is survived by one son, Harley Hollenshead of Bremerton; three daughters, Mrs. S. E. Fauver and Mrs. Lola Stevens both Seattle, and Mrs. Edna Bruhl of Chatteroy. Three brothers, George Plager and Paul Plager, both Spokane, and Rudolph Plager of Ritzville also survive as do 10 grandchildren and 28 great grandchildren.

She was a member of Ritzville First Christian church and Pioneers of Washington. Cremation was held with cremain burial in Lind cemetery.

Memorial services will be held December 15 at 2 p.m. in Ploeger-Hart Mortuary chapel, 5279 Rainier Avenue South, Seattle.

What a Friend We Have in Jesus

Erie

C. C. Converse, 1868

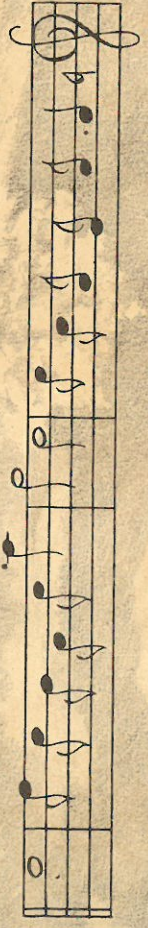

What a friend we have in Jesus, All our sins and griefs to bear!

What a privilege to carry Everything to God in prayer!

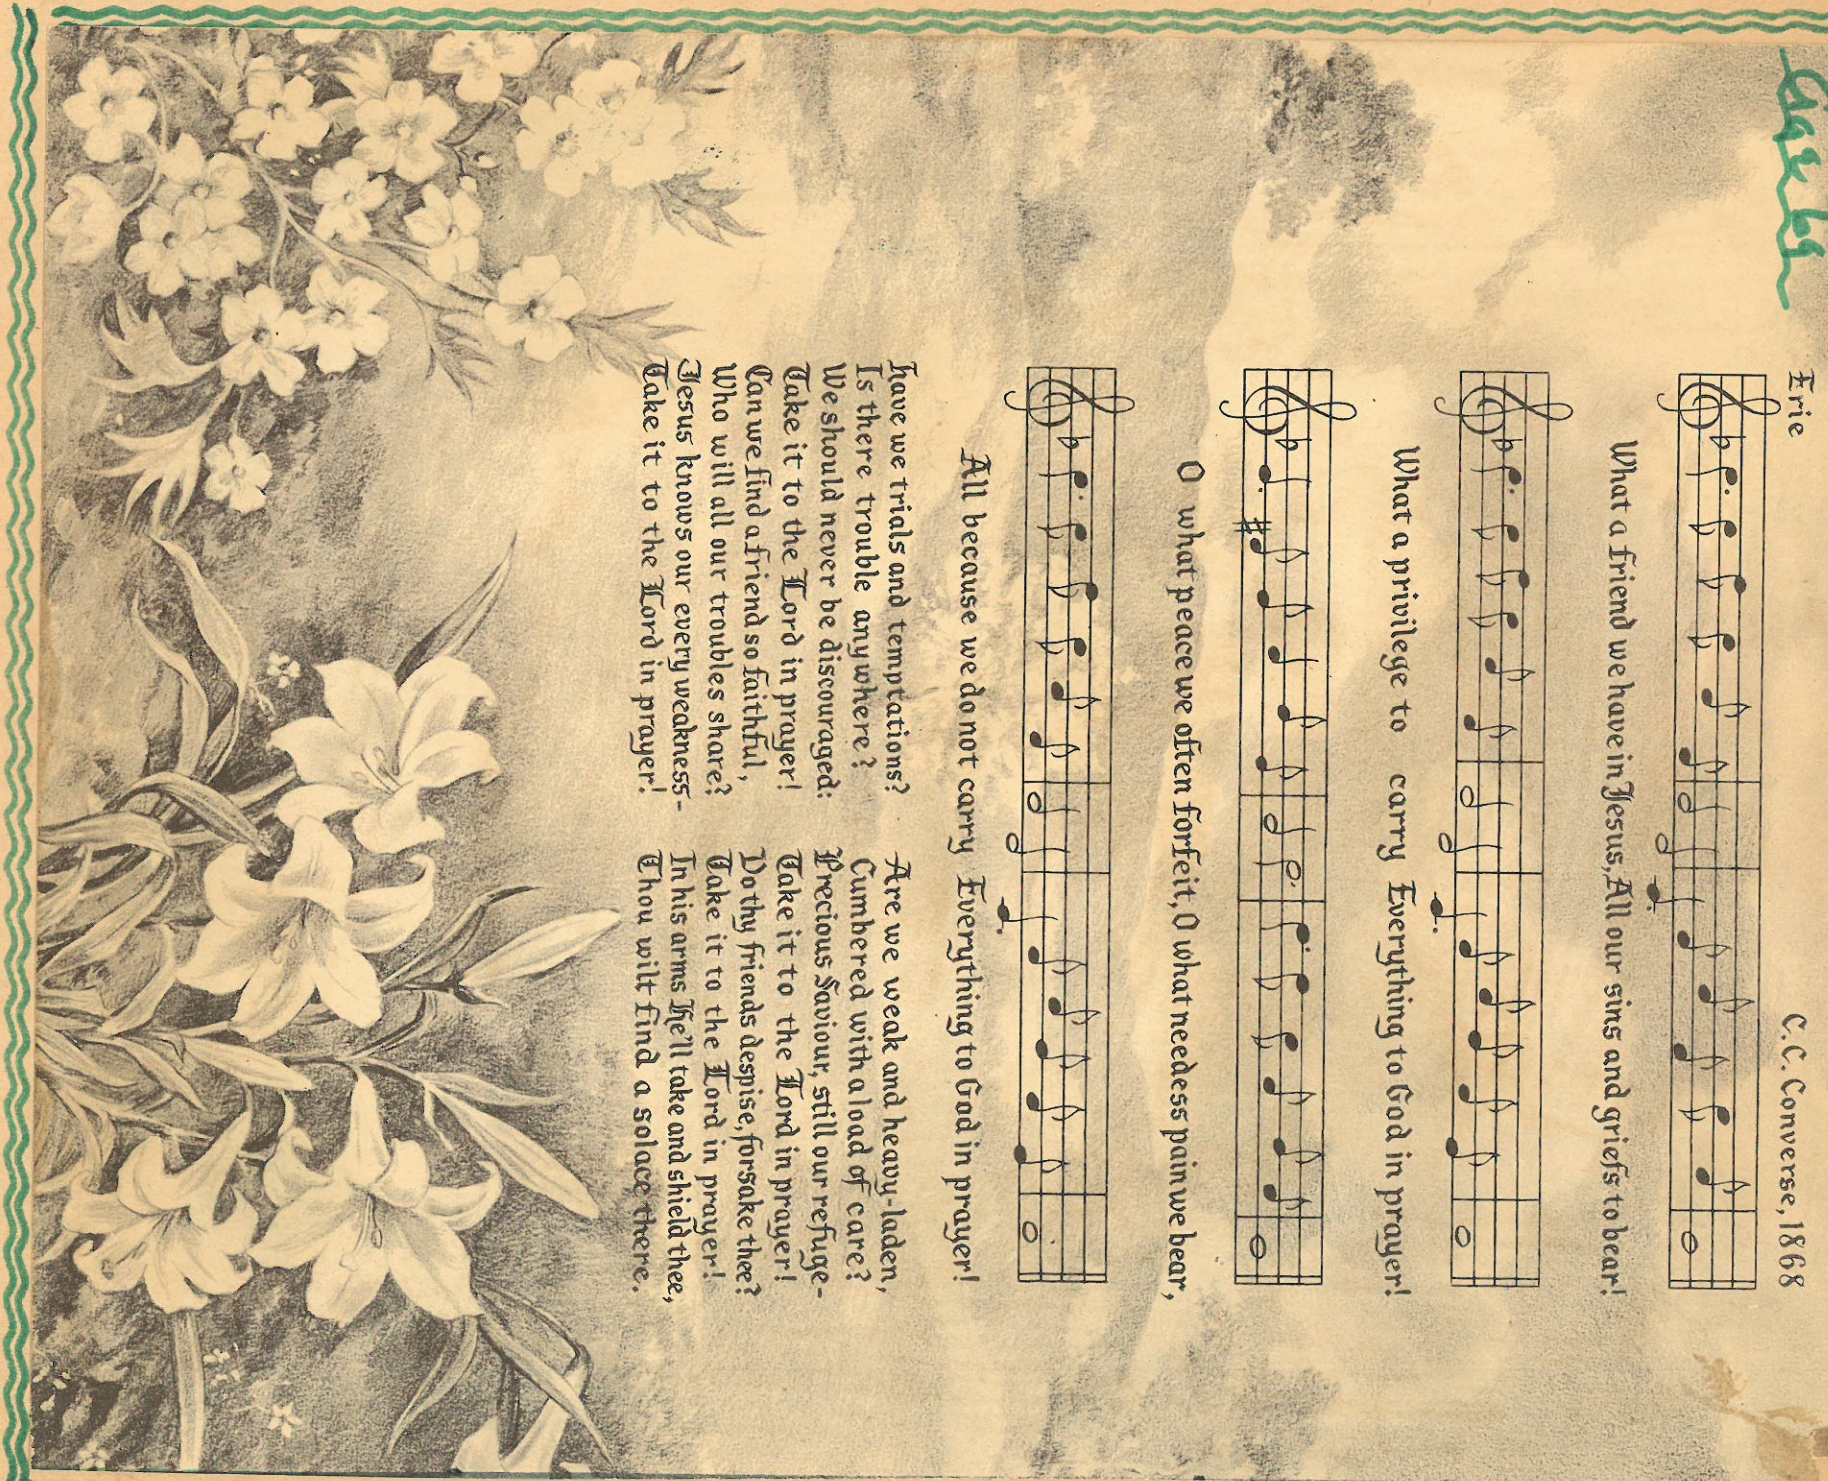

O what peace we often forfeit, O what needless pain we bear,

All because we do not carry Everything to God in prayer!

Have we trials and temptations?
Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discouraged:
Take it to the Lord in prayer!
Can we find a friend so faithful,
Who will all our troubles share?
Jesus knows our every weakness-
Take it to the Lord in prayer!

Are we weak and heavy-laden,
Cumbered with a load of care?
Precious Saviour, still our refuge-
Take it to the Lord in prayer!
Do thy friends despise, forsake thee?
Take it to the Lord in prayer!
In his arms He'll take and shield thee,
Thou wilt find a solace there.

A tall hill, a steep hill,
That led to fear and loss;
A grim slope, without hope,
And at its top a cross.

Sad footsteps, a pathway
Through insults madly hurled!
Above it all, high courage
Like some bright flag unfurled.
His footsteps — their echo —
Were heard around the world.

Dea. Mrs. Kaufmann:-

I read in the Journal-Times of the passing of Edward Kaufmann last week and wish to extend our sympathy to you and family.

The reason I am writing you also is that I am keeping a record of all the former graduates and students of Ritzville High School and if you have any information which would add to Ed's section in the Class of 1911 I would be glad to add it to his pages. I have not see Ed since graduation as I left Ritzville in 1916 and I see he left in 1921.

I don't know whether he has ever returned to any of the Alumni reunions which are held in May of each year. I have attended many of them and have never contacted him altho he may have been there at times.

I have a memorial which I add to his record which includes a sacred passage and illustration and data as to his age, birthday, place of birth, family etc. I presume I am addressing the former Grace Murray which says you were married and have one son. Also that you were in the Class of 1919. The address I have may not reach you as it

I know Ed real well as I was in the Class of 1909. I was a sophomore. The books I am compiling will eventually be on display in the Alumni Vault at the High School. I have 75 books up thru and including 1980 from our first Class of 1905. I also have 25 books covering the banquets each year from our 50th reunion held in 1955. I hope I have the right address and will be glad to hear from you.

When Edward J. Kaufman of the Class of 1911 died Jan 22, 1973 I wrote to his widow, Mrs. Edward Jay Kaufman, (Grace Murray of the Class of 1917 for information and she wrote me the following letter. A copy of it is in the Book of 1911 also under Edward Kaufman section. Page 3.) She wrote. address 1853 East 12th Ave, Spokane, Wash. 99202.* Dear Roy:- I am a long time writing to thank you for your expression of sympathy but I am just now getting over the flu which I had at the time of Ed's death.

I am sure I remember seeing you and knowing you were Byron's brother. It must have been in 1914. That was the year I went to Ritzville to live with my cousin, Mrs. Fred Davenmy and the year I entered High School there. I graduated in 1917 and the only time we attended an alumni banquet was for the 50th anniversary of my class. It amazed us to know how many people came to attend the banquets and from what distances they came.

Ed finished Blair's Business College in Spokane after he graduated from high school. After that he had a year at Washington and one year at Montana. Then it must have been two years in the army. After coming home from overseas he entered the University of Idaho (continued below.)

and got a law degree after three more years. He passed the state bar in Idaho, but never practiced law. At the time of his retirement, he was with the Washington State Highways where he had worked many years and was a traffic engineer.

Ed was born on the farm near Ritzville Nov. 13, 1892. His death was Jan. 22, 1973.

Everything about your letter indicates that there is never a dull moment in your life and I hope you continue to have as many interests.

Sincerely,
Grace Kaufman

Mrs. Scott Feted Reception for Ritzville Pioneer

Mrs. D. A. Scott, a resident of Adams county since 1894, was honored Sunday with a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Galbreath.

One of Adams county's best known pioneers, Mrs. Scott, the former Alma King, came west to care for the children of her brother, W. W. King.

In 1895 Mrs. King was married to D. A. Scott and they lived on a homestead now farmed by Walker Jantz. Later they farmed on the ranch now owned by Rick Bierman and the ranch farmed by Mrs. Scott's son-in-law, Maynard Galbreath.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott had six children, Anna, Wilma, Verna, Alma, Kenn and Nellie. All of Mrs. Scott's children are living except Nellie, who died several years ago. Mr. Scott passed away in 1933.

THE RECEPTION was planned by all of Mrs. Scott's children in celebration of her eightieth birthday. Mrs. Scott was presented with an orchid corsage by the Zenith chapter of the Eastern Star and received many bouquets of flowers from friends and relatives.

Special guests who attended the reception were the only living brother and sister of Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Daisy Curdall of Lewiston, Idaho, and J. E. E. of Pendleton, Ore.

Mrs. Scott returned in June from a month's vacationing in Hawaii with her daughter, Mrs. Anna King of Coeur d'Alene, and Mrs. Dewayne Kelso of Los Angeles. Presiding at the table Sunday afternoon were Mrs. K. K. Scott, Mrs. Wilma Harris, and Mrs. Verna Galley all of Spokane and Mrs. Stanley King of Colfax.

Preceding the reception a birthday dinner was held for Mrs. Scott with 32 members of the family present to help her celebrate.

RITZVILLE residents who attended the reception were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Galbreath, Bernice Galbreath, Ethel Galbreath, Mark Galbreath, Katie Pinnow, Mary Martin, Martha Koch, Myra O. Walker, Minnie Deking, Anna O. Manke, Mrs. E. A. Graham, Mrs. C. Wentworth, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur German, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Thiel, Dale Galbreath, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. F. Kalkwarf and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stielaff.

Also attending were Mrs. Marcus Thom, Mrs. Lawrence Schaffer, Mrs. Gail R. Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. James Webb and Sue, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Varnes, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sayre, Mrs. Ott, Mrs. Henry Danekas, and Mrs. Ann Harder.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer, Mrs. Joe Kembel, Mr. and Mrs. Kar Rosenoff, the Rev. and Mrs. Alfred Carter, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kittel, Mr. and Mrs. George Kiefer, Mrs. Henry Klein, Mrs. F. V. Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Klein and Mrs. Chr. Mrs. Lloyd Gillis, Mrs. Ann A. Bier, Mrs. W. H.

Mrs. D. Scott Writes Of Interesting Trip In California

3-934

I will try and give you a few of the highlights of the most interesting and beautiful trip it has ever been my privilege to have taken. On January 6, I started south on a six weeks trip as the guest of my sister, Mrs. F. E. King and nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Everett King of Pendleton, Ore. We followed highway number 395. Stopping at Burns and Lakeview, Oregon, Reno, Nevada, Leavenworth, San Bernardino, California, arriving at Long Beach three and a half days later.

We traveled through snow in the Sierra mountain region for about 700 miles but found the roads in good condition, we took an apartment in Long Beach and visited friends and relatives and old schoolmates from there. Among them were Mrs. E. D. Gillson and daughter, Florence, of Los Angeles; Dorothy Patrick Hart of Long Beach and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph King and son of Tazewell, all of whom at one time were former Ritzville residents.

Visits In Mexico
We spent two days at San Diego, Calif., and Tia Juana and very much impressed by the old missions and was interested in seeing the Mexicans making their famous pottery, baskets and lace. The ostrich, alligator and lion farms, we found very interesting and very much worth one's time to visit.

One of my most impressive trips was to Forest Lawn Memorial Park in Glendale, where we visited the "Wee Kirk O' the Heather," a replica of the little church in Scotland where Annie Laurie was married and about whom the song "Heaving her name was written." This little church is a quaint link in the historic past and the modern today.

"The Little Church of the Flowers" also located in the park was inspired by the old world village of John of Stoke Pages in Buckinghamshire, England, where the "Begy." This little English church is over six centuries old and with the exception of the tower, it has today the same appearance as when Gray meditated there in the 18th century. It is a regularly dedicated church, non-sectarian and non-demonstrational. It is only theology is Love; it's congregation—all who dwell in the world.

Many Wed In Church
These little churches of Forest Lawn are available for services of sacred character and their use is free to lovers of Forest Lawn. More than 8,000 couples have been wed in these two little churches. The Mausoleum in the park holds the remains of many movie celebrities and other famous people. The one way see the beautiful feet long and thirteen feet wide, depicting "The Last Supper." It took the artist, an Italian girl, six years to complete this window. The secret of the colors will be lost unless she divulges them as she is the last in her family. Many beautiful marble statues adorn the halls and private rooms of the museum.

Calif. did itself proud in providing perfect weather as we only had two rainy days while there. On our return trip we came over the east route as for as Carmel by the Sea where we spent two days, taking in the beautiful 17 mile drive along the ocean front where we watched the seals play along the rocks and admired the many beautiful homes. Carmel is a quaint little old fashioned town which boasts of but very few street lights and sidewalks. My sister and I went to several different churches that Sunday evening but found them all closed. We were later informed that no evening services were held.

Visits San Francisco
Our next stop was at San Francisco where we spent two days seeing the bridges, driving through the parks, visiting the Cliff House and Seal Rock, the Aquarium Zoo and the famous Fish Market. We drove to the Exposition grounds on Treasure Island which we found closed. Alcatraz seen from Golden Gate Bridge.

Other stops were made at Newburgh, Multnomah and Portland, Ore., and we arrived home safely after having driven over 7000 miles with our only car trouble one flat tire. Mrs. D. A. Scott

Dear Mrs. Wilson,
 I am thinking of you today because it is Dec 1918
 Christmas and I wish you happiness!
 And tomorrow because it will be the day after Christmas, I shall wish you happiness and soon I shall think the day. I may not be able to tell you about it every day, because I may be far away; or because both of us may be very busy. But it makes me happy. Whatever joy or success comes to you will make me glad.
 Without pretence and in plain words, good will is what we need in the spirit of Christmas. Alma K. Scott

Virgil Baumgardner, accompanied by Roy Gilson, left Sunday morning for an overnight trip to Walla Walla in Virgil's roadster. They expect to attend Whitman college this year. Virgil had the good fortune to have the auto presented him by his father.

J. T. Baumgardner left the first of the week for Corvallis, Ore., where he will attend the agricultural college. He has been visiting with his mother Mrs. C. Baumgardner.

The Schmidt and Dornier threshing outfit pulled their rig into the Warner ranch near Mesa, Saturday, after having threshed 25,000 sacks of grain on the flat.

Tugged up in his best tie and tucker, John Wellsand left for a short trip to Spokane Friday.

RITZVILLE HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION HISTORY & LIBRARY

This LIBRARY consists of 75 books with loose leaf sheets and according to circumstances, are added, deleted, or altered. RITZVILLE HIGH SCHOOL graduated its first CLASS in the year of 1905 with 13 students. There is a book for each CLASS beginning with 1905 up to and including 1989. In 1956 the school celebrated it's 50th ANNIVERSARY with a banquet at the Marcelus Grange Hall with over 500 in attendance. Our DIAMOND Jubilee will be in May of 1980 when we will celebrate our 75th year. I have no intention of carrying this history beyond that date.

Each book is 12" x 14" in size and the sheets are reinforced with scotch tape. Each SHEET contains the following information: NAME of each GRADUATE, (full name if possible), address, signature, birthday, names of husband or wife and children, their parents and dates, relatives who graduated or attended RHS, school and college records, marriage, family, activities, death data, trade or profession and where live and work, and any other data or information which can be gathered from newspapers, magazines, letters, interviews or from any other source possible.

I have endeavored to arrange the material in a neat and orderly fashion and the names alphabetically and chronologically when possible. I realize many mistakes have been made in placing correct data in the proper place but so many of the names are duplicated. Mr. Vic Rozel helped me immensely in the identification of families also Mrs. Mabel Burrill and Mrs. Robert Clark. (Miller) and many others too too numerous to mention. Of the faculty Mr. Lloyd was wonderful in his assistance.

I started this record in the month of May, the 25th of May, 1905 when I was present at the first graduation at the Old Congregational Church and obtained the signatures of the graduates on onion skin paper and you will notice that when they signed 50 years later the writing was very similar. I then DEDICATED the books to our first SUPERINTENDANT, PROFESSOR. JOHN HENRY PERKINS, who started the RHS Alumni Association that night. (Page 56 large book and Prof. Perkins work in the 1905 book.

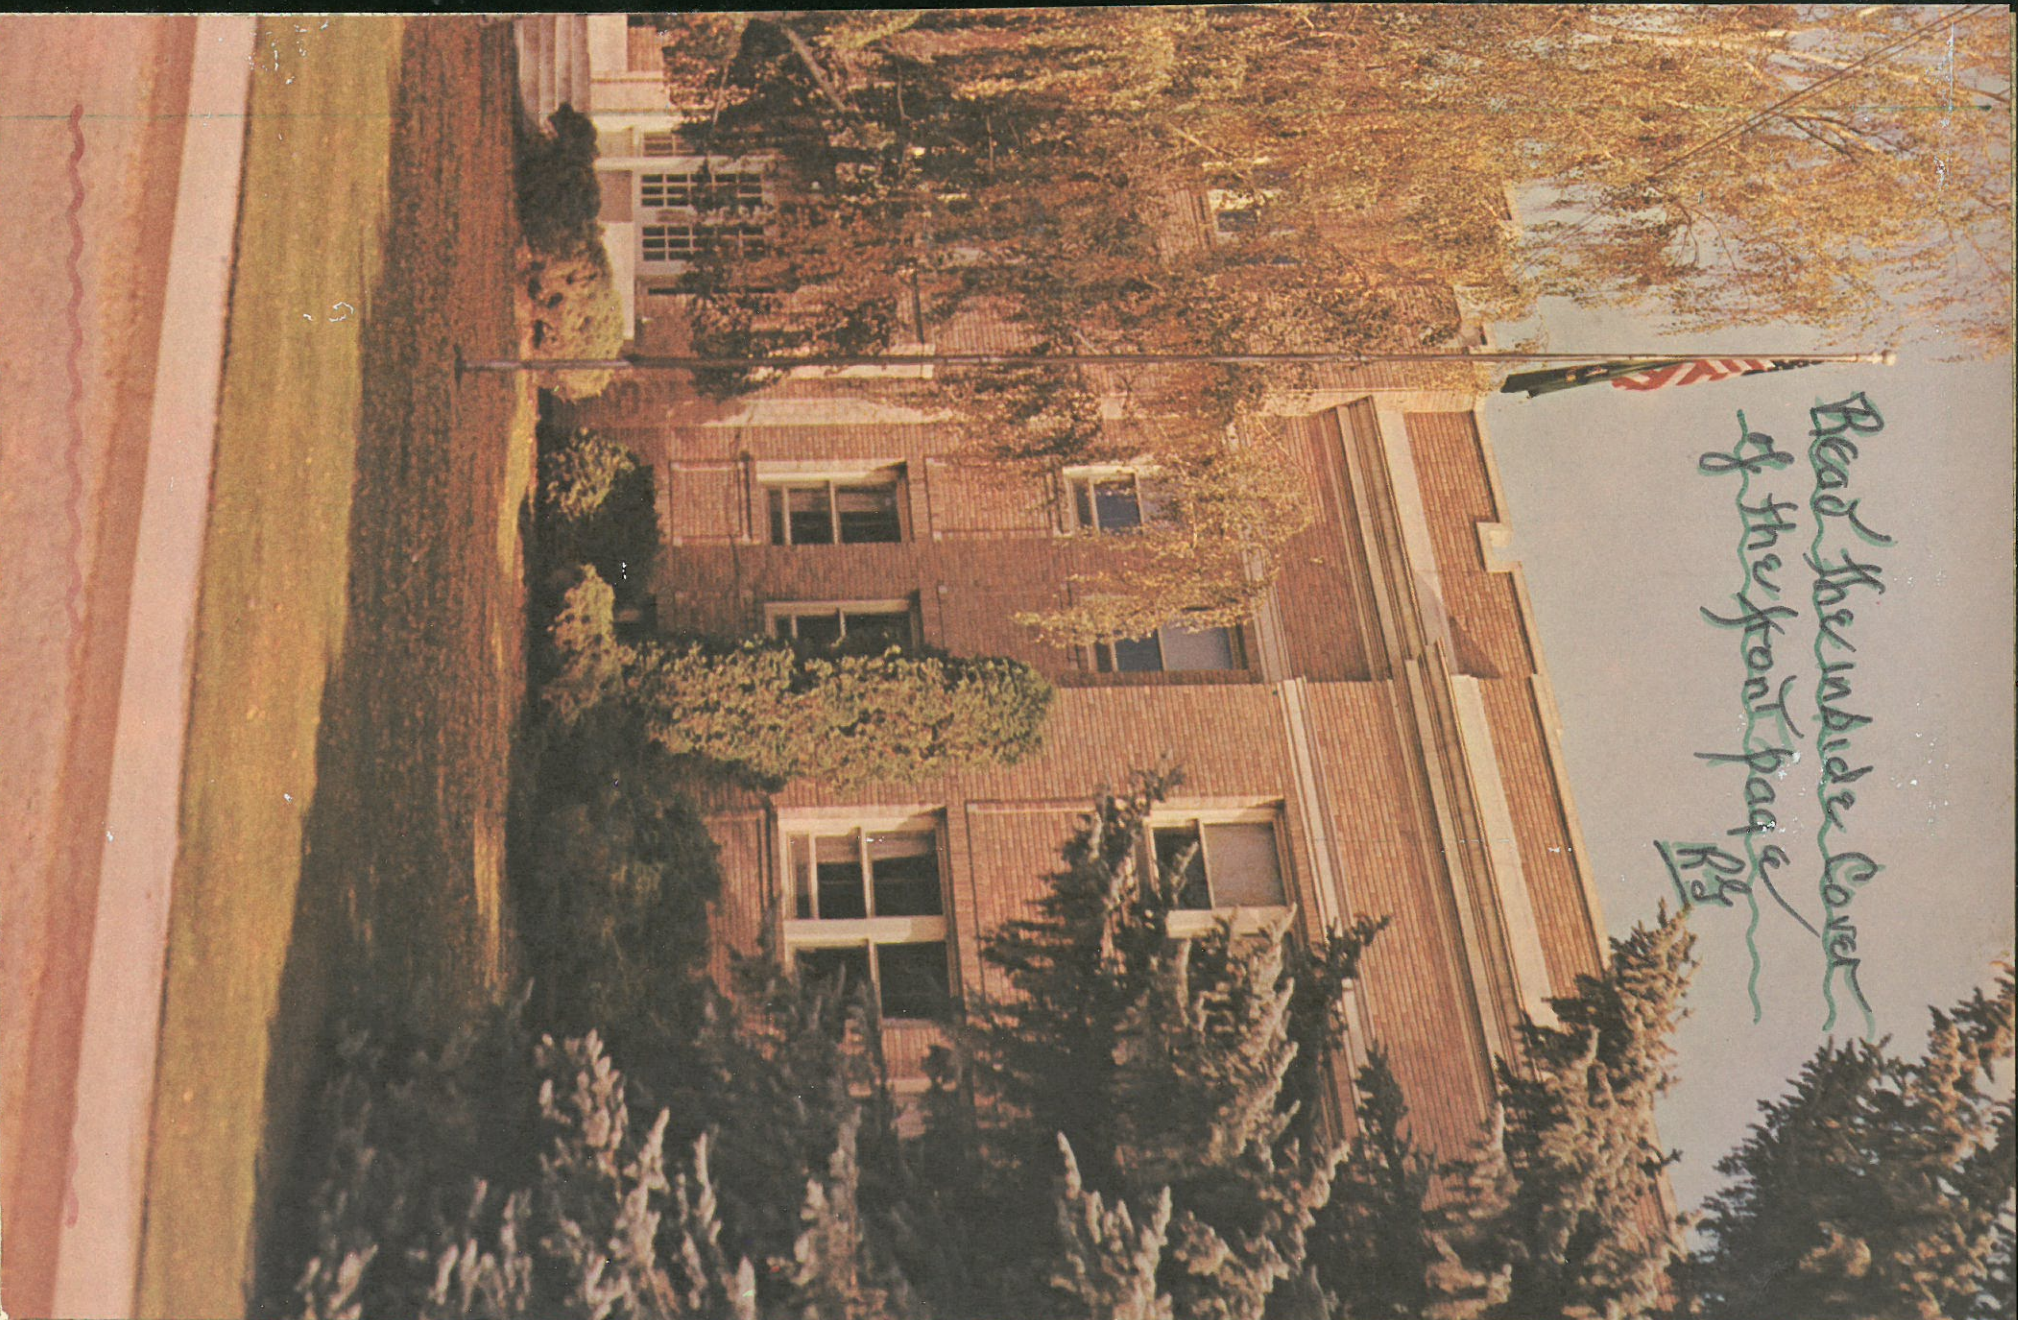

This project has been quite expensive in that I have taken the Journal-Times (2 copies) for many years for information. Also subscribed for the Harvester and purchased 5 or 6 copies each year of the Annual, the Kernel. While visiting the banquet each year hundreds of pictures were taken. I hope placed in the proper place. I do do this, it took every minute of my spare time of work but I didn't mind any of these things as I enjoyed it so much and I have always been under the impression that it was worth while. That I shall never know for sure. It is my hope that the library will come to rest in the addition that Vic promoted onto the high school building and there they will repose and be available to future generations. If anyone thinks it is necessary to continue the records say or to the year 2000 or more maybe some individual in his or her dotage has a weakness for cutting paper dollies, saving clippings from the papers, and pasting in pretty picture books will carry on. There must be someone in the around 2500 of us who were fortunate enough to have had the opportunity to attend and gather the fruits of knowledge and experience in Ritzville High School, the finest, the best, the most excellent school on earth.

Love to you all

Roy Gilson, Class of 1909.

There are also 25 larger books 15" x 17" beginning with the year 1955, our 50th, which cover the ANNUAL BANQUETS AND REUNIONS, The GOLDEN "R"s, and the honored Classes, the 50 year Class, the 25 year Class and the current Graduating Class. R6

1917 — SMILES

Key F

There are smiles that make us happy,
There are smiles that make us blue,
There are smiles that drive away the teardrops,
As the sunshine steals away the dew,
There are smiles that have a tender meaning,
That the eyes of love alone can see,
But the smiles that fill my heart with sunshine,
Are the smiles that you give to me.
