ANNUAL STAFF
Ritzville, Washington

Foreword

The Kernel staff takes great pleasure in presenting to you this 1950 Annual. In preparing this Kernel, we have endeavored to incorporate into its pages, pictures that will help keep fresh in your minds the most interesting experiences of this school year. It is our hope that this Annual keeps alive memories of those days spent at Ritzville High.

SENIORS

—Through the Years—

Miss Boone and Miss Ramsbottom started the Class of 50 on the education road.

Some change can be noted as they moved into the sixth grade under Miss Gill.

You would hardly know them by the time they hit the eighth grade they all looked pretty sharp. Miss Pickette and Mr. Samek seemed proud of them.

The first Christmas tree and the fourth grade operetta along with some early snaps of our dignified Seniors are also pictured.

Bronco Track Team Wins Bi-County Championship

[illegible]

Defeat Bulldogs 19-6 At Lind Homecoming Day Celebration

Ritzville's flashy Broncos annexed the Bi-County football championship Friday as they trounced the Lind Bulldogs by a score of 19 to 6 to dampen the Bulldogs' Homecoming Day program. This is the first Bi-County championship won by the Broncos since 1945 when Cecil Telecky and Larry Kiehn starred for the Broncos in Coach Rex Thomason's first year at Ritzville.

Verlin Elliott staged the best run of the game as he took the ball on the Altaville 20-yard line and dashed to the 41. Elliott was hounded in on the 20 and then squirmed loose and took off around end. He was hit several times but pivoted loose and to the 42 before being ed. Elliott pitched a pass to Hall or a 15-yard advance and the Broncos threatened.

THE STORY

A large appreciative audience attended the Senior Class production given November 18 at the high school auditorium.

A young hypochondriac (John Miller) thought he was at death's door when suddenly he had a romantic urge to live. His ingenious butler (John Schroder) captured a gangster with his own invention, "Willowchlorophide." Merle Trimble played the romantic lead as Charlotte and Henrietta was portrayed by Cynthia Heimbigner.

Jodwillow delighted the audience when he fell victim to a bomb which was intended for Rodney from Scorpio. The bomb blew most of his clothes off. His solution succeeded in "gassing out" the whole cast as the final curtain was pulled.

"Where's Laurie" was presented February 4 by the Juniors with Pat Ott carrying the title role of Laurie Williams.

Jinx Taylor and Katie Forester get into a peck of trouble when they arrange for Laurie to be absent from their fall prom so the boys will notice the rest of the girls for a change.

Quite a mix-up occurs when Eddie Fowler tries to lend a helping hand to Jinx and takes off with Laurie, but eventually lands himself in jail for kidnapping.

All ended well though with the boys finally realizing that the other girls still existed.
